Standards and objectives integrate 21st century skills with content.
I selected standards and wrote objectives to integrate appropriate 21st century and higher-order thinking skills with content learning.	I selected standards and wrote objectives to connect 21st century and higher-order thinking skills to content learning.	I selected standards and wrote objectives that address lower level skills connected to content learning.	My standards and objectives address low-level skills and knowledge.
Objectives support content standards.
My objectives clearly show what students will learn, and are supported and derived from the unit plan's targeted content standards.	My objectives show what students will learn and relate to the unit plan's targeted content standards.	Some of my objectives describe tasks rather than what students will learn related to the content standards.	My objectives describe tasks unconnected to standards.
Objectives are assessed.
All my objectives are assessed using varied strategies throughout the unit.	All my objectives are assessed during the unit.	Most of my objectives are assessed during the unit.	Few of my objectives are assessed during the unit.
